Celebrated Tenth Anniversary

(Communicated.) The members of the Woman's Club with their husbands and a few invited guests, in all about eighty, assembled at G.A.R. Hall Tuesday evening to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the organization of the club.

A most pleasant feature was the to this club yesterday. In addition to serving of a 7 o'clock dinner at its In the absence of the president, Mrs. Earhart, who was unfortunately detained at home by illness, Vice-president Mrs. W. L. Grubb acted as toastmistress. With one so capable as she, with failure unknown, success was assured. Our ever ready Mrs. Walter Tedford responded to the toast, "Our Guests." Our club mother, Mrs. Mills, who guarded the club in its infancy, responded to "Our Birthday"-carving thoughts of advancement from its incipiency to the present time. Our member, Mrs. Wilcox, who is always full of wonderment and fancy, toasted "Fads, Fancies and Facts." In "Looking Backward," Mrs. Mansur carried all with her in memory, giving incidents and happenings of times gone by. Mrs. Marks told the company, in that concise manner peculiar to herself of the "Woman With a Vote." The always imaginative and prophetic Mrs. Sylvester gave the "Club

Special Meetings
The special meetings which have been going on at the First Methodist church for the past ten days, continue to grow in interest and attendance. The sermons preached by Rev. H. E. Murkett have been of much power, and have appealed to many. Mr. r'arrar's sweet singing has added much to the meetings, as has the singing by the choir. The subject for tonight is, "Pearls." All are cor-dially invited to attend these meetings, which will end tomorrow night.

The new models are exceedingly stylish and "chick." The jackets are cut on strong, tailored lines, in pretty, two and three button effects. The shorter lengths set off the long roll lapel to the very best advantage. Some of the collars are handsomely trimmed with cuffs to match; in other styles, they are regular, that is, tailored of the same material as the jacket. The skirts are the new, pleated models.

As to colorings, we can show you a wide range in all the wanted spring shades. They certainly form a handsome line, soft shades of tan, old rose, Copenhagen blue, and greens, grays and others too numerous to mention.

The range of cloths embraces the new hop sackings, basket weaves, anad diagonals. The ever popular serges and striped serges are very strong, as well as the dainty, herringbone stripes. Checks are good in black and white.
